ALL THAT GLITTERS

If you have lots of sparkly details on your dress, go ahead and dare to add some glitter to the centre of your upper lids. Use eye primer and fixing spray to ensure the glitter will not fall on your cheeks. Add thin liner to your upper lid, and keep lips a natural glowing pink. Avoid using lipgloss for this look to maximise impact on the eyes.

PEACHES

This look is a perfect fit for olive skin tones. The runway trend can easily be adapted to complement a bridal look by contouring with a light apricot or peach matte blush. Finish off with an orange-hued lipstick and a swipe of apricot gloss on top.

BERRY LIPS

Wine-stained or burgundy lips can bring out a sense of sophistication and elegance at the same time. Keep the eyes clean and light to put emphasis on the lips. Ideally created for indoor weddings, this style also beautifully matches metallic dresses, which are also in trend this season.

FOCUS ON LASHES

Go for natural-looking lashes to open up your eyes in a subtle but stunning way. Contour, then apply a light apricot hue on lips, which go well with dolly fan-out lashes. Always wear waterproof mascara, as joyful emotions run high and it's hard to keep tears from falling!

ENGLISH ROSE

This makeup works especially well if pearls are part of your bridal jewellery or if they are adornments on your wedding gown. Wear dewy highlighter on cheekbones, rosy lips and keep to light, natural-looking eyes. Opt for light brown or taupe eyeliner to keep the whole look romantic. The style also looks stunning for beach weddings where you can pair it with subtle waves in your hair.

For years in the hair styling industry, SOMJATE "JAMES" RLOMNOI has been known for creating stunning looks for Thai models and celebrities. By paying attention to their individual personalities, he brings out the unique charms of each client instead of completely upending their look. He recently styled celebrity brides like Chittima Wattanasin and R&B diva Lydia Visutthithada, and has developed as his trademark classic looks with an urban twist. Keeping up with trends, James has put together for Prestige head-turning hairstyles from 2015.

HIGH FASHION

Middle parts are often featured on couture runway shows, oozing sophistication and confidence. To add a hint of femininity, make a low bun at the nape of the neck and accessorise with floral pins.

LOW PONYTAIL

Add polish to this simple style by adding extra volume to the back of your head. For a modern finish, create texture on the crown or top part by braiding, twisting or knotting. This urban flair also injects a jolt of warmth and personality to the style.

PRINCESS BUN

High and sleek, this classic updo offers formality, elegance and best of all, lasts all night. Wrap a braid around the bun to add a stylish touch. This look also showcases your facial structure and natural beauty to their best.

ROMANTIC CURLS

People with straight hair can get this luscious look with large rollers or a curling iron. Tuck hair behind one of your ears and apply some maximum-strength hairspray to keep the gorgeous soft curls in place.
